ETCHINGS AND LITHOGRAPHS BY JAMES McNEILL WHISTLER

EXHIBITED AT THE
ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO
MARCH 12 TO MAY 1, 1917

DEPARTMENT OF PRINTS
THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

COMMITTEE — Wallace L. DeWolf, Kenneth S.
Goodman, Thomas E. Donnelley, Kate S. Buckingham.

ASSISTANT IN CHARGE — Kathryn W. McGovern.

MR. BRYAN LATHROP, whose death occurred on May 13, 1916, was for twenty-two years a Trustee of the Art Institute. It is difficult adequately to express appreciation of his generous and efficient service to the Museum and of his service to the community as a lover and patron of the fine arts.

In the present memorial exhibition of his entire collection of etchings and lithographs by James McNeill Whistler, the Art Institute offers to its members and friends, and to all the people of Chicago, a rare opportunity to see an unusually comprehensive exhibition of Whistler's prints. There is represented a variety of subjects rather than of "states", because Mr. Lathrop collected through love of the prints and not through a desire to possess rare or early states. A few other collectors in this country possess as many Whistler etchings as are shown here; but a more nearly complete collection of the lithographs would be difficult—if not impossible—to find. Since the number of impressions taken is small, it is not surprising that the lithographs are not very well known. Mr. Lathrop believed that "many of them have a delicacy, a grace, and a charm not surpassed even by Whistler's etchings, and they deserve to be better known."

Through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop, this valuable Whistler collection is eventually to become the property of the Art Institute.

In the list of etchings, references are given to the catalogue compiled by Edward G. Kennedy, of New York; and the lithographs are catalogued according to Thomas R. Way, who printed all but a few of Whistler's lithographs.
